

Temper Cloud Architecture

The upload pipeline processes files through four stages:

1. Extract text content from uploaded files
2. Chunk the extracted text by markdown headers
3. Generate 768-dimensional vector embeddings
4. Store chunks with embeddings in PostgreSQL

Each chunk includes a content hash for deduplication and a header path for hierarchical context.